

I am outraged that the public trust has again been broken. Pappas Broadcasting is donating free advertising time to Republican candidates. This is an obvious misuse of the airwaves paid for by taxpayers and FREE to large corporate interests. THIS MUST STOP.

I intend to campaign against the free give away of our airwaves to large corporations. The FCC has not fulfilled it's mandate to protect the public interests against this kind of abuse.